About Me

I am a web developer who is fluent in German and specializes in building web applications using JavaScript and Angular. Feel free to check out my public portfolio, where you can find examples of responsive websites and business applications that I've created. My journey into the world of IT began with coding small websites at home, but I decided to pursue professional training and work on more significant projects. Now, I'm excited to continue building on my experience and start my career in the IT industry as a junior developer.
